

Psalm 27 (The Lord Is My Light)

(written by Micheal Stokes, recorded by Chicago Mass Choir, based on Psalm 27:1-2)

Chorus:

The Lord is my light and my salvation,
whom shall I fear, of whom shall I fear
(2x)

Verse:

When the wicked, even my enemies
and my conquerors came upon me to eat up my flesh,
they stumbled, they stumbled and fell.
(2x)

Repeat Chorus

Repeat Verse

Repeat Chorus

Vamp:

Baritones/Basses:

Hallelu, glory, hallelu, glory, hallelu, glory, they stumbled and....

Tenors:

Hallelujah, glory hallelujah, (3x), they stumbled and fell.

Altos:

When the wicked and my enemies
came to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Sopranos:

When the wicked even my enemies,
and foes came to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

End:

They stumbled and.....(high soprano solo: fell.....) ALL: FELL!